Hello Everyone,

I hope you and your loved ones are all healthy during these difficult times.

I am sharing this opportunity/resource as a follow up to our conversation last winter/spring.

I look forward to hearing your thoughts.

Hi,

I apologize for the delay, but I think that we have found a time for our follow up meeting. Thank you for volunteering to discuss concrete next steps following our discussions at both campuses regarding the professional development offering. Look for a calendar appointment soon for Wednesday, February 12 at 3:45 PM at the Winnetka Campus. The goal of our meeting will be to do two things: take stock of where things stand at the moment and discuss our next steps.

If you are unable to make this meeting, please let me know. I believe that we will want to meet several times as plans are developed and implemented.

Tim
